CLUB CAPTAIN UPDATE

As the newly appointed Club Captain of Queenscliff Surf Life Saving club I wanted to share a few observations from the weekend. First of all I would like to thank everyone who had the time to patrol over the Easter weekend, we really appreciate it. It was a busy weekend on the beach and thankfully the surf conditions were fairly benign, apart from an occasional rip off the North flag.

There was a major incident, a lost child and a shark sighting at Manly Beach on Saturday afternoon which made for a busy shift and well done to Patrol 8 for handling everything so well. Patrol 8 were also inspected and achieved 344 out of 350 points, well done team. I also attended all of the patrols on the weekend and would like to say that everyone did an exceptional job! Patrol person of the day for Patrol 14 is Rich (Ernest) Mills and Patrol 8 Kelly McFadden. A special mention to Mark Creighton who volunteered on patrol for nearly the whole weekend. We will be including Patrol person of the day in future news letters, as well as posting it in the first aid room.

I look forward to seeing you all on the beach and feel free to contact me if I can help at all.
